Philippines East Adventure Tour

Cebu, Moalboal & Boracay

Day 1 – Welcome to Cebu

Welcome to the Philippines! It is hot, it is tropical, and yes, you are absolutely going to love it.

Today is all about arriving in Cebu City, meeting your group, and getting to know your Imagine Beyond Travel Leader. These are the people you will be island-hopping, waterfall-jumping, cocktail-sipping, and probably embarrassing yourself on the dance floor with over the next week.

This evening, we will head out for our welcome dinner and a few drinks.

Pina Colada? Mango daiquiri? Five?

No judgement here. Let the adventure begin.

Day 2 – Cebu to Moalboal

This morning, we leave the city behind and make our way to the beautiful seaside town of Moalboal — pronounced ‘mole-bowl’, if you were wondering.

On the way, we stop for a local lechon-style lunch before visiting the incredible Simala Church. This fairytale-like landmark is one of the most spectacular spots in Cebu, and locals say miracles happen here.

After a relaxed walking tour, we continue to Moalboal. The afternoon is yours to enjoy — grab an iced coffee, explore the town, treat yourself to a Filipino massage, or simply settle into island mode.

Day 3 – Snorkelling with Sardines & Turtles

Wake up, grab breakfast, and get ready for one of the most magical days of the trip.

Today we head into the water for an unforgettable snorkelling experience. Moalboal is famous for its marine life, and you will get the chance to swim among colourful corals, tropical fish, the iconic sardine run, and, if we are lucky, turtles gliding through the ocean like absolute legends.

There is something pretty special about seeing turtles in their natural habitat. Do not be surprised if someone quietly sheds a happy tear into their snorkel mask.

In the evening, we will head out to experience Moalboal's nightlife. Expect beach bars, good vibes, and at least one person recreating the sardine run on the dance floor.

Day 4 – Canyoneering Adventure

Today is a big one.

We are off canyoneering through waterfalls, rivers, rock pools, and jungle scenery. This is one of the Philippines' most iconic adventure activities, and it is every bit as epic as it sounds.

Whether you are the first to jump, the last to jump, or firmly in the 'I am absolutely not jumping off that' club, we have got you. Float downstream, scramble over rocks, splash through crystal-clear water, and get those GoPro shots ready.

After the adventure, we will enjoy a late lunch and then take the evening slow. You have earned a chilled night before we continue to our next dreamy destination: Boracay.

Day 5 – Moalboal to Boracay

Paradise is calling.

Today, we travel back to Cebu Airport and catch a short flight to Caticlan, the gateway to Boracay. From there, we hop over to the island and check into our resort, our home for the next three nights.

Boracay is famous for powdery white sand, bright blue water, beach clubs, sunsets, and a nightlife scene that does not mess around.

Once we are settled in, we will head out to watch the sunset. Depending on the group vibe, we might grab a few drinks on the beach or join a sunset cruise. After that, it is time for a group dinner and a night out for anyone ready to experience Boracay after dark.

Want to chill instead? Completely fair. Massage, shower, early night, and no one needs to know.

Day 6 – Boracay Beach Day & Paraw Sailing

This morning is yours.

Sleep in, wander the beach, find a cute café, hit the shops, swim, sunbathe, or spend quality time recovering from last night's questionable life choices.

In the late afternoon, we meet back up for one of Boracay's most beautiful experiences: Paraw sailing.

A paraw is a traditional Filipino sailboat with two outriggers and two sails. We will glide across the water as the sun begins to set, with Boracay's famous colours lighting up the sky. Golden orange, pink, purple, lilac — the whole thing looks like someone turned the saturation up in real life.

After sailing, we will head back, freshen up, and check out some of the best cocktail spots in town. Mojitos at sunset? Yes, please.

Day 7 – Boracay Boat Party

It is our last full day together, so obviously we are going out with a bang.

Today is boat party day.

We will spend the day island hopping, snorkelling in crystal-clear water, floating around, soaking up the sun, and making the most of every final moment in paradise. Expect music, drinks, swimming, lunch, and all the 'how is this real life?' energy.

Later, we head back to shore and get ready for our farewell dinner. This is the final night with your Imagine Beyond crew, so dress up, order dessert, make a toast, and celebrate an unforgettable week in the Philippines.

The goodbye might hurt, but the memories will be worth it.
